

An Open Letter from a Pro-Lifer to All Pro-Life Organizations

Fellow Pro-Lifers:

Ever since the Day of Infamy on which the Supreme Court of the United States claimed to find, lurking in the shadows of our U.S. Constitution, a “right” of women and their doctors to kill unborn children, we, and a large segment of the American people, who recognize this fraudulent “right” as a violation of the laws of God and of nature, have been trying, primarily by educational and political means, to correct this abominable injustice. At every turn, our efforts have been thwarted, gutted, or otherwise made ineffectual by a coalition of hedonists, pragmatists, liberals, compromisers and assorted other short-sighted interests who we will collectively refer to as the “belly-servers”. This coalition, which places immediate gratification of their desires above eternal principles, also happens to be in charge of the principal means of communication, education, entertainment, and government.

If sincerity, truth, and righteousness of our cause could win the battle on the levels at which they have been fought, we would have won it ages ago. Instead, the abomination is now entrenched as an integral part of the societal structure of our nation and world. And I do not doubt the sincerity of most of the multitudes of pro-life organizations that were founded to oppose this blight on our land. Yet today, thirty-six years after Roe vs. Wade, what do we pro-lifers have to show for our efforts? A few crumbs tossed our way by a Republican “pro-life” Congress we helped elect? Let's look at some of those. How about the so-called “ban” on “partial-birth abortion”? Have any of you read it? Not only does it affirm support for the infamous Roe decision (something which I do not think any previous Congress had done), but it also effectively reclassified a form of infanticide (which is illegal) as a form of “abortion”, and proceeded to make it “legal” (in some cases, as insisted upon by our “pro-life” Bush administration). Imagine! A ban that actually legalizes what it proposed to outlaw. What an amazing victory! How about the “Mexico City Policy” that allegedly prevented federal funding of overseas abortions? Yet, during all those years, federal funding of Planned Parenthood, the world's largest provider of abortions, continued, uninterrupted, to the tune of millions of dollars and countless taxpayer-funded abortions. Meanwhile, playing on the blind support of pro-lifers and patriotic Americans, Mr. Bush built the framework for a new fascist police state that his successor is even now fleshing out into a preview of hell. If this is victory, what does defeat look like? Oh, yes, I almost forgot. Obama in the White House. Does anyone recall the name of the GOP senator who could always be counted on to vote tax dollars to Planned Parenthood? Let me jog your memory. It was John McCain, that fellow who ran for President as a “pro-choicer” in the primaries and morphed himself into a “pro-lifer” just in time to keep pro-life voters of both parties from bolting to a third party. Would a McCain White House have been that much different? Fellow pro-lifers, have you been snookered enough yet?

Kindly pardon my sarcasm. I write this not to be mean or cruel, but to get your attention. I write not to be a defeatist, but to call your attention to the fact that we have had it in our power to win this battle all along, but have failed until now to use the correct means. The problem is that most of us have failed to ascertain the nature of the battle. We saw its origin as a bad court decision, and so we sought to elect politicians to give us a new court to reverse it. So we tended to view it as primarily a political battle, and tried to act accordingly. We formed groups, raised millions in funds, mailed out surveys trying to prove that most Americans oppose abortion. And by framing it as a political issue and a matter of public opinion, we undermined our cause and conceded vital ground to our enemies! How? Simply this: Abortion is wrong, not because most Americans oppose it, but because it violates the laws of God and of nature. It would still be wrong even if 100% of everyone in the world favored it, because God opposes it. Therefore, nobody has any right to legalize it, or even to favor legalizing it. And, therefore, even to put the matter to a vote, or to ask for opinions about it, is, in a very real sense, to violate God's Law, and to concede defeat. Do men take surveys on whether two plus two should equal four? Can Congress pass a law repealing the Law of Gravity? Can a decision of the Supreme Court make the world flat? Neither can any man or group of men presume to make a right out of what God has said is wrong.

The fact is that the Roe decision was merely a symptom of a much deeper problem, one that is essentially spiritual. And, being a spiritual problem, its solution, of necessity, must be spiritual. Legalized abortion is in fact part of a Divine chastisement which we were warned about over ninety years ago, as something that would occur if mankind refused to amend his ways. Moreover, this warning was accompanied by a promise that if a certain elite group of men were to perform a simple action that was easily within their power, this evil, and a myriad of other evils now afflicting the world, would be prevented. As of this writing, in July of 2009, this group of men has thus far declined to perform the required act. With what consequences, we will see shortly.

Let us look at a few of the very destructive problems that pervade our nation and world-- things that have come to be seen as necessities by much of modern society, but which undermine human happiness and make slaves of men, women and children. We have mentioned legalized abortion. What about the banishing of God from public life, effectively instituting atheism as the established religion of a nation (leading to the State setting itself up as the sole object of worship)? Widespread ridicule and persecution of Christian teaching and practice. The attack on the family and marriage. Substituting State authority for Parental authority in the raising of children. Gender "equality" as public policy, pushing women into the roles of men, including military combat. Socialism/Communism institutionalized as the economic/ political system of a nation. Terrorism. The massive spreading of pornography. I could name more. What do these evils have in common?

While you are thinking about that, let's go back to 1917. In November of that year, as most people know, the Bolsheviks seized power in the world's largest nation, Russia. But a few months prior to that, in the tiny nation of Portugal, near Fatima, three shepherd children were visited several times by the Blessed Virgin Mary, bearing a message to the world from her Divine Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ. That message was a warning that God was very displeased with the sins of mankind, and would soon send a great punishment on the world, unless people reformed, prayed, and did penance. What follows is a translation of the words Our Lady as related by Sister Lucy, the oldest and last of the three visionaries to die, concerning a terrifying vision they had just received:

You have seen Hell where the souls of poor sinners go. To save them God wants to establish throughout the world the devotion to my Immaculate Heart.

If people will do what I will tell you, many souls will be saved, and there will be peace. The war is going to end.

But if they do not stop offending God, another and worse war will break out in the reign of Pius XI. When you see a night illumined by an unknown light, know that is the great sign that God gives you, that He is going to punish the world for its crimes by means of war, hunger, persecution of the Church and of the Holy Father.

To forestall this, I shall come to ask the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart and the Communion of Reparation on the first Saturdays.

If they heed my request, Russia will be converted, and there will be peace. If not, she shall spread her errors throughout the world, promoting wars and persecutions of the Church; the good will be martyred, the Holy Father will have much to suffer, various nations will be annihilated; in the end, my Immaculate Heart shall triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, which will be converted, and some time of peace will be given to the world.

In Portugal, the dogma of the faith will be kept always, etc.

Why all this about Russia? Let's come back to the present and answer the question above. What do these evils have in common? The answer is, Russia. In modern times, the first country to institutionalize all these evils, or the most notorious country for spreading them abroad, or both, is Russia. Therefore, legal abortion, and all these other evils, are errors of Russia, which God has permitted His enemies there to spread throughout the world as part of a Divine punishment for the sins of mankind, just as He frequently chastised His Chosen People of old for their repeated idolatries, by allowing them to fall into the hands of their enemies.

You can say what you like about private revelations. The fact is that the Fatima apparitions were backed up by a stunning miracle witnessed by 70,000 people, and are approved by the Church. Another fact is that the Consecration of Russia, which Our Lady later specified was to be performed by the Pope and all the Bishops of the world, has never been done as she requested, and all the dire warnings given as to the punishments for failure to accomplish it have been fulfilled, and continue to be fulfilled, to the letter, except for one: the annihilation of nations. Which raises a disturbing question: Will the Holy Father and the bishops wait until one or more nations are annihilated before finally obeying Our Lady's request? When Our Lady speaks of conversion, she means to her Son's Catholic Church. She did not ask the consecration to be done by the schismatic Patriarch of Moscow. Thus, Russia remains unconverted, and the errors continue to spread.

Why am I bothering you and other pro-life groups about this? Pro-life groups are made up of people, and people can pray. More to the point, your people are much concerned about ending what amounts to a specific error of Russia. I want to give them, and you, a chance to help end it, once and for all.

On the heels of two very successful Rosary Crusades (which resulted in the liberation of the Traditional Latin Mass and the lifting of the unjust excommunications of the Bishops of the Society of St. Pius X), His Excellency Bishop Bernard Fellay has launched a third Crusade, of twelve million Rosaries, plus corresponding sacrifices, to be completed by March 25, 2010, for the intention that this Consecration will be carried out soon. (Details at sspx.org.) My family and I are fully on board. The Pope is the only one who can turn the key to unlock the graces to solve the problem. This is a plea to you to encourage your supporters, in your next mailing, to join with the rest of us who are already storming heaven for this intention. It would cost so little to add such a notification to your next mailing, with an explanation such as given above, and the situation of the pro-life movement is now so bad that, frankly, you have nothing to lose and everything to gain by it. I beg Our Lady to obtain for you the grace and strength to do this. Thank you for this, and for all your other works on behalf of the innocent victims of the sins of the world, and may God bless you and your supporters!

Yours for the Triumph of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
